

But what if we don't know the masses of the invisible particle(s)?

Can we construct a maximal lower bound on  $M_A$  that depends on a hypothesis for  $M_B$  ?