

We will see two important themes:

- Mass measurements will precede<sup>(*)</sup> spin determinations
- “Spin measurement”<sup>(**)</sup> should not be confused with “sensitivity to spin”

(*) or will at best be simultaneous with

(**) Here “spin measurement” means “determining unambiguously the correct nature (scalar, fermion, vector) of one or more particles in a decay chain or model