

Note key difference to bounding vars

- With the bounding vars you place a bound on a property/parameter/invariant of the hypothesis or model by construction.
- With the kinematic edges and endpoints, you look for a kinematic structure in a distribution, and use it to constrain one or more parameters of the hypothesis or model.