

So, in principle, find masses by looking for highest contrast edge.

