

Another sort of “just”-constrained event

– get constraint from other “side”

Left: case considered
in hep-ph/9812233

- Even if there are invisible decay products, events can often be fully reconstructed if decay chains are long enough.
- (mass-shell constraints must be \geq unknown momenta)
- Since we can use p_{miss} constraint, chains can be shorter than $N=4$ now.